Mission Statement

We all recognize the tremendous service that members of our Armed Forces provide to our country. The Calhoun/Cleburne County Veterans Court was founded to address the growing number of veterans involved in the criminal justice system. The Veterans court is a problem solving court working in conjunction with the District Attorney's Office, defense counsel, the Veterans Administration, volunteer Veteran Mentors, and numerous agencies to give participating veterans the necessary support and services needed. The program assist veterans involved in the criminal justice system with drug rehabilitation, housing, mental health, education, and employment. Participating veterans agree to show up for court sessions and participate in treatment which the coordinator reports the attendance and progress to the judge. Veterans are also assigned a veteran mentor to encourage and motivate the veteran to stay on track and complete the program. Successful completion of the Veteran Court program will often result in resolution of the criminal case and change the veteran's life choices to avoid future contact with the justice system. It is our mission to help veterans acknowledge the skills, support, service, and spirit needed to regain control of their life and have a positive impact on our communities.

Why a Veteran's Court?

Many wonder why create a treatment court specific to veterans? Why not work with these individuals within the established drug and mental health treatment courts? There are many answers to this question; perhaps the most significant is that veterans are a niche population with unique needs. Service members have many shared experiences. Many of these experiences are not common among their non-military peers. Members of the military and veterans are a unique population, which calls for tailored care. Traditional community services may not be adequately suited to meet their needs. Service members and their families experience unique stressors as part of the military experience, thus the delivery of high quality care for psychological health, including prevention, early intervention, and treatment requires providers who are knowledgeable about and able to empathize with military experience. This type of court links individuals with service providers who either share or understand the unique experience of military service, military life, and the distinctive needs that may arise from that experience.

Introduction

Welcome to the Calhoun and Cleburne County Veterans Court. This handbook is designed to answer questions and give you information about the Veterans Court. As a participant of the program, you will be expected to follow the instructions given to you by the Honorable Judge Brian Howell and the Veterans Court Team. You will also be expected to follow all supervision and program rules and complete the treatment plan developed by you and your assigned treatment agency. This handbook will explain what is expected of you and it will help you move through the program to successful completion. It will also provide general program information. We encourage you to share this handbook with your family, significant other, and friends who are all an important part of this process. This handbook provides you with a basic outline of the program. It gives you a clear understanding of what is expected of you during your participation in the Veterans Court. If you have any additional questions, please ask your treatment provider or coordinator for more details.

The Veterans Court is a court supervised program coupled with intensive treatment and supervision for non-violent criminal offenders. The program is designed specifically for persons with felony charges closely related to their substance abuse or mental illness. It involves regular court appearances, drug treatment, random drug testing, mental health treatment, support group meetings, vocational or job counseling, educational classes, and supervision. You must complete the entire program to successfully graduate.

Eligibility

The Veterans Court program is only for veterans of the Armed Forces of the United States as defined by federal law. This program is a privilege, not a right. It is a voluntary program. Your criminal history will be closely reviewed by the District Attorney's office. Only "honorable" and "honorable with general" status discharges will be reviewed. If approved, your application will then be reviewed by the Veterans Court team and Veterans Administration to determine acceptance and if you qualify for the necessary Veterans Benefits. If so, you will then be allowed to enter a plea in Veterans Court. You will then be scheduled a meeting with the Veterans Court Coordinator to discuss an appropriate treatment plan and a brief overview of program rules and requirements. In most cases, you will not be accepted by the Veterans court if you have any violent charges, gun charges, or if gang related; however, acceptance is done on a case-by-case determination.

Program Description

The Calhoun County Veterans program was developed to help you achieve total abstinence from drugs or alcohol, be diverted from prison or jail, and to have a more satisfying, law abiding life. The program is designed to reduce re-arrest, promote self-sufficiency through employment and education, and to assist you with remaining in the community as a productive and responsible member of society. The judge, court staff, treatment agencies, and other team members will guide and assist you, but the final responsibility is yours. You must be motivated to make these changes and commit to a totally crime and drug free life.

The program involves working with the court, coordinator, treatment providers, Veterans Health Administration, Veterans Benefits Administration, Veterans Employment representatives, Veterans service organizations, and other team members for a minimum of a year. However, the Judge will make the final decision of completion. Our team will be working with you towards successful completion of the program, but the choice and effort to become drug and crime free comes from you. You will not be sent to prison or back to jail if you comply with the conditions of the program and graduate. It is important that you understand the long-term commitment involved in this program. You may become involved with community support groups, attend substance abuse treatment, participate in mental health treatment, strict supervision, submit to random drug testing, and make regular court appearances.

Court Appearances

If you choose to participate in the program after you are approved for admission, you will be instructed to appear in the court to enter your plea of guilty to your charge(s). Prior to your appearance, your attorney will advise you of your rights and discuss the program with you. After you enter your plea, your attorney's job is concluded and unless you retain an attorney to do so, your attorney will no longer represent you in the case(s) to which you have entered a plea. During the program, you will be required to attend court every two weeks on the first and third Tuesday of the month at 8:30am unless instructed otherwise. You will enter the program in phase I requiring you to appear in court every two weeks. Upon successful progress through the program, the Veteran Court team may move you into phase II where only one court appearance is required.

Supervision

Following your acceptance into the Veterans Court, you will report to your coordinator for orientation. The coordinator will provide a general overview and discuss the rules and requirements. You will be scheduled a date and time to report monthly to see the coordinator. The coordinator will assess your medical, housing, transportation, drug history, mental health history, and fines to determine an appropriate treatment plan.

Treatment

Substance abuse and mental health treatment is provided by state funded treatment agencies or the federally funded Veterans Health Administration. The treatment agency that you are assigned to will coordinate your treatment and may refer you to additional treatment or mental health services if needed. After entry you will develop a treatment plan with the coordinator. The schedule will be determined by the treatment agency, but attendance is required. Each treatment plan is individualized to meet participant's needs. You are responsible for attending all scheduled appointments. Missing appointments will result in sanctions and have to be made up later. Substance abuse counseling is comprised of different formats such as individual session, group session, and case management. Your attendance and level of participation at counseling sessions will be reported to the team as part of your progress report. Attendance may be required at support group meetings such as AA or NA. The number of required meetings will vary upon need. You will have to provide signed attendance that you are attending these meetings.

Sanctions

If you fail to comply with the program rules, you may be sanctioned. Sanctions are progressive and become stiffer for repeat violations. As you progress through the program, the expectation is that you will not have any sanctions; therefore, the sanctions imposed may be stiffer than in earlier months of participation. Sanctions are individualized to each situation and should not be viewed to have a set guideline. Failure to appear on the date and time scheduled may result in a warrant being issued. If you cannot appear in court or make an appointment, you must notify your coordinator prior to the miss. If you have emergency, you must notify the coordinator immediately. Warrants, new charges, or non-compliance could result in termination from the program and sentenced on your pending charges.

Program Fees

You will be responsible for paying all fines owed during your participation in the program. The amount owed will be provided during orientation and a payment plan will be established. Payment information will be provided to the judge as part of the progress report and non-payment may result in delayed graduation or sanctions.

Drug Testing

As you progress through the program, drug testing will be required on a random basis. The Veteran Court team will have access to all drug test results, including failures to test. Results that indicate a sample was diluted will be subject to the same sanction as if the result were positive. You may be placed on a color code. The goal of the program is to help you achieve complete abstinence from drugs.

Graduation

The Veterans Court is a highly structured and supervised program. Treatment is designed to last for a minimum of 12 months. Your progress through the court phases will depend upon your completion of treatment goals and compliance with drug testing and program rules. Fewer sanctions often mean faster completion. Participants must also make significant progress in treatment and other program requirements to complete the program. At each appearance, the judge will be given a progress report prepared by the coordinator regarding drug test results, employment status, attendance and participation in treatment, and monthly reporting. Eligibility for graduation is determined by the judge, the court team, and treatment providers. You must have no miss or positive drug test for four months. You must have some means of income or attending school. You must satisfy all your financial obligations to the court and be compliant with planned treatment.

Confidentiality

All participants records are protected by federal and state laws regarding confidentiality. We cannot release written or verbal information without written, signed consent. However, you cannot participate in Veterans Court without a Release of Information which allows the Veterans Court team to discuss your case and progress. Persons outside the program will not be provided information about you. There may be additional emergency or legal circumstances that require release of information such as court order, medical emergency, threats, child abuse, etc. Please refer to the form titled 42 C.F.R. § 2.22 under “Forms” for more information on protected information.

10 Components of Veterans Court

The National Clearinghouse for Veterans Treatment Courts at the National Association of Drug Court Professionals

In 2008, The Buffalo Veterans Treatment Court adopted with slight modifications the essential tenements of the U.S. Department of Justice Publication entitled “Defining Drug Courts: The Key Components”, (Jan.1997). There are key differences between Drug Courts, Mental Health Courts, and Veterans Treatment Courts. These Key Components provide the foundation for the successful operation of a Veterans Treatment Court.

Key Component #1: Veterans Treatment Court integrate alcohol, drug treatment, and mental health services with justice system case processing

Veterans Treatment Courts promotes sobriety, recovery and stability through a coordinated response to veteran’s dependency on alcohol, drugs, and/or management of their mental illness. Realization of these goals requires a team approach. This approach includes the cooperation and collaboration of the traditional partners found in drug treatment courts and mental health treatment courts with the addition of the Veteran Administration Health Care Network, veterans and veterans family support organizations, and veteran volunteer mentors.

Key Component #2: Using a nonadversarial approach, prosecution and defense counsel promote public safety while protecting participants’ due process rights

To facilitate the veterans’ progress in treatment, the prosecutor and defense counsel shed their traditional adversarial courtroom relationship and work together as a team. Once a veteran is accepted into the treatment court program, the team’s focus is on the veteran’s recovery and law-abiding behavior—not on the merits of the pending case.

Key Component #3: Eligible participants are identified early and promptly placed in the Veterans Treatment Court program

Early identification of veterans entering the criminal justice system is an integral part of the process of placement in the Veterans Treatment Court program. Arrest can be a traumatic event in a person’s life. It creates an immediate crisis and can compel recognition of inappropriate behavior into the open, making denial by the veteran for the need for treatment difficult.

Key Component #4: Veterans Treatment Court provide access to a continuum of alcohol, drug, mental health and other related treatment and rehabilitation services

While primarily concerned with criminal activity, AOD use, and mental illness, the Veterans Treatment Court team also consider co-occurring problems such as primary medical problems, transmittable diseases, homelessness; basic educational deficits, unemployment and poor job preparation; spouse and family troubles—especially domestic violence—and the ongoing effects of war time trauma. Veteran peer mentors are essential to the Veterans Treatment Court team. Ongoing veteran peer mentors interaction with the Veterans Treatment Court participants is essential. Their active, supportive relationship, maintained throughout treatment, increases the likelihood that a veteran will remain in treatment and improves the chances for sobriety and law-abiding behavior.

Key Component #5: Abstinence is monitored by frequent alcohol and other drug testing Frequent court-ordered AOD testing is essential. An accurate testing program is the most objective and efficient way to establish a framework for accountability and to gauge each participant's progress.

Key Component #6: A coordinated strategy governs Veterans Treatment Court responses to participants' compliance

A veteran's progress through the treatment court experience is measured by his or her compliance with the treatment regimen. Veterans Treatment Court reward cooperation as well as respond to noncompliance. Veterans Treatment Court establishes a coordinated strategy, including a continuum of graduated responses, to continuing drug use and other noncompliant behavior.

Key Component #7: Ongoing judicial interaction with each Veteran is essential

The judge is the leader of the Veterans Treatment Court team. This active, supervising relationship, maintained throughout treatment, increases the likelihood that a veteran will remain in treatment and improves the chances for sobriety and law-abiding behavior. Ongoing judicial supervision also communicates to veterans that someone in authority cares about them and is closely watching what they do.

Key Component #8: Monitoring and evaluation measure the achievement of program goals and gauge effectiveness

Management and monitoring systems provide timely and accurate information about program progress. Program monitoring provides oversight and periodic measurements of the program's performance against its stated goals and objectives. Information and conclusions developed from periodic monitoring reports, process evaluation activities, and longitudinal evaluation studies may be used to modify program

Key Component #9: Continuing interdisciplinary education promotes effective Veterans Treatment Court planning, implementation, and operations

All Veterans Treatment Court staff should be involved in education and training. Interdisciplinary education exposes criminal justice officials to veteran treatment issues, and Veteran Administration, veteran volunteer mentors, and treatment staff to criminal justice issues. It also develops shared understandings of the values, goals, and operating procedures of both the veteran administration, treatment and the justice system components. Education and training programs help maintain a high level of professionalism, provide a forum for solidifying relationships among criminal justice, Veteran Administration, veteran volunteer mentors, and treatment personnel, and promote a spirit of commitment and collaboration.

Key Component #10: Forging partnerships among Veterans Treatment Court, Veterans Administration, public agencies, and community-based organizations generates local support and enhances Veteran Treatment Court effectiveness

Because of its unique position in the criminal justice system, Veterans Treatment Court is well suited to develop coalitions among private community-based organizations, public criminal justice agencies, the Veteran Administration, veterans and veterans families support organizations, and AOD and mental health treatment delivery systems. Forming such coalitions expands the continuum of services available to Veterans Treatment Court participants and informs the community about Veterans Treatment Court concepts. The Veterans Treatment Court fosters system wide involvement through its commitment to share responsibility and participation of program partners.

Veterans Court Sanctions

Sanctions will be imposed for violation of any of the Veterans Court Rules & Requirements, as well as violation or any other failure to comply with an order of the Veterans Court Judge. Sanctions will be imposed based on the specifics of the individual case. Additionally, treatment may be required which may include an outpatient or inpatient treatment program. Such a requirement is a therapeutic effort to address your substance abuse problem or mental health issue and is not designed to be a sanction or punishment for any rules or requirements violated. The same violation may not result in the same sanction for two different Veterans Court participants. The following is a partial list of sanctions that may be imposed for non-compliance. The Court or Veterans Court Coordinator may impose different or additional sanctions that may be appropriate for the non-compliant conduct:

- Incarceration in the County Jail
- Community service
- Electronic monitoring
- Increased frequency of court appearances
- Increased reporting to Coordinator
- Increased frequency of drug screens
- Delay in graduation date
- Termination from the Veterans Court Program – Imposition of Sentence or reinstatement of charges that were continued to be dismissed pursuant to Deferred Prosecution

Calhoun County Veterans Treatment Court Rules and Requirements

In order to graduate from Calhoun County Veterans Treatment Court I will abide by the following Rules and Requirements. I understand that failure to comply with any rule or requirement will result in a sanction, which may or may not terminate me from the VTC program and result in imposition of my jail and prison sentence. I will comply with all other Court orders and requirements of the Court, the VTC Coordinator, and treatment directors not specifically set forth in these Rules and Requirements
